Bill,

Wanted to make sure you saw Jeff's email from yesterday -- he's not kidding when he said we're taking a big risk.

I won't lie, I'm a little stressed out about our fundraising numbers, because even though a lot of you have stepped up since we made our announcement, we still need 341 folks to contribute to hit our goal before Wednesday.

Please chip in what you can afford right now -- we won't ask again after Wednesday.

Thank you,
Tyler
